Hardin County High School graduate becomes a combat engineer

SAVANNAH, Tenn. – Pfc. Brandon L. Carroll graduated from the Army's Combat Engineer course at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, on Aug. 20, 2021.

During this fast-paced 14-week program, Carroll graduated as a U.S. Army Combat Engineer trained in engineering, demolition, and explosives. He returned to Huntingdon's Troop 1, 890th Sapper Company to utilize his new skills.

“The Army National Guard has allowed me to serve my country and others while still pursuing my dream job,” said Carroll.

Carroll is a graduate of Hardin County High School and plans to attend the University of Memphis to seek a degree in commercial aviation.
