Smyrna native enlists in Tennessee National Guard

SMYRNA, Tenn. – Pvt. Jason Bush graduated from the Army’s Basic Combat Training and Motor Transport Operator course at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, on February 11.

During this rigorous 6-month training program, Bush learned to operate and manage wheeled military vehicles over all types of terrain. He learned to safely transport cargo and troops as well as provide advanced mobility during combat operations. Bush is now assigned to Smyrna’s 1176th Transportation Company.

“I appreciate all the training I have received that has gotten me to this point,” said Bush. “I’m grateful for this opportunity of a new start and a better future.”

Bush is a graduate of LaVergne High School and is the brother of Pfc. Greg Bush, who also serves in the Tennessee National Guard.
