Luttrell native qualifies as vehicle mechanic

LUTTRELL, Tenn.— Pfc. Destiny Johnson, a Luttrell native, graduated from the Army's Basic Combat Training and Wheeled Vehicle Mechanic Course at Fort Lee, Virginia, on May 31.

During the 13-week course, Johnson was trained to perform maintenance, repair, and recovery operations on wheeled vehicles and select armored vehicles. She is now qualified to inspect, service, replace and test vehicles at her new unit in the Guard.

“I joined the Army to give something back and to better myself,” said Johnson. “I know this was the best decision I’ve made for myself and my future.”

Johnson is a graduate of Union County High School.
